

UNLOCK THE KEY

Isyana Sarasvati

Lost
I am lost again
No
I'm alone again

I keep falling into fear, every single time I want to open up my mind
I can't see the purest colour of my soul
They keep saying this, but what I want is that
They keep saying no when my body wants to move
I'm stuck in confusion

I keep falling into fear, every single time I want to open up my mind
I can't see the purest colour of my soul
They keep saying this, but what I want is that
They keep saying no when my body wants to move
I need to clear the mind's eye

This evolution shaped a war in my imagination
I am being suffocated by the mess that keeps on running in my head
Set me free from the darkness
I will never let you get a piece of my light
I've warned you more than once
Unlock the key and step away from my life

Love, love, love, thank you for the longing
I am still alive
Love, love, love, thank you for the longing
I am still alive

(Set me free from the darkness)
(Unlock the Key and step away from my life)
