It Bites

Have you ever wondered when the lights go down
If the toys in the store get to get around
You may think I'm crazy
Panicked by fright
I swear by God almighty it happened one night
(Happened in a store)
In a store downtown
I got myself locked in watched and waited
Anticipated
And enterprising heroes in full flight
And Batman swings by the candlelight
And Superman's laughing at the wonderland zoo
I think I'd rather be this way

I wanna be connected
Plastic Dreamer
Connected
Plastic Dreamer

At the stroke of twelve it all came to life
And He Man chased the man with his wife
Darth Vader shows he's all dressed in drag
Reveals what's inside I thought he was bad
And the teddy bears parading on the cold stone floor
The rabbits made love as I watched an applauded
Shouted more more more
They're burning down the zoo
And Kremlin flies around with his spaced out crew

Connected
Plastic Dreamer
Connected
Plastic Dreamer

I can see you, I can see you
I can see you, I can see you
I can see you, I can see you
I can see you, I can see you
I can see you, I can see you

Plastic Dreamer
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Plastic Dreamer
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Plastic Dreamer
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Plastic Dreamer

Mammy
They left me
On my own and I'm lonely
Happened in a store downtown
Don't let the box stop you'll lose me
Have you ever wondered when the lights go down
