

Sister Sarah

It Bites

I am in love with you
The feeling that all is true
And the pain it shows, the pain it shows inside
And every little thing I do
Just makes me wish that I could come for you

Lay down and cry on my shoulder
Sarah you're out of your tiny mind

Sister Sarah lost her mind
She grew corrupt they locked her up
And now she's doing time
Sister Sarah's lost her mind
She hopes to go where she will find
Some kind of love

I am in love with you
The feeling that all is true
And the hurt it shows and everything goes inside
And every little thing I prove
Just helps me take that
I can't be with you

Lay down and die
Lay down and cry on my shoulder
Sarah your out of your tiny mind

Sister Sarah's lost her mind
They locked her up she drank the cup
And now she's on a high
Sister Sarah's lost her mind
She hopes to go where she will find
Some kind of loving
Sister Sarah's lost her mind
And now she's doing time
Sister Sarah's lost her mind
She hopes to go where she will find
Some kind of love

I was lost now I've found a road to go
I was cold but now I've found someone to call my giver
Out on the grass in the cold
There's a wonderful world that I'm told
To Be
