

Wallflower

It Bites

Wallflower in the garden You bring chaos and charade When you smile their colours fade And I am not a blind man I have seen behind the wall I will watch your bird, so small.

Don't dare deceive me

Wallflower Oh how you remind me So much poison ivy Wallflower Oh how you deride me Come alive beside me Bring it on

Wallflower in the garden Who dares race you up the wall? Who's the fairest of them all? Oh, ring a ring a roses You may wear your crown I'll blow your house right down. Don't dare deceive me

Wallflower Oh how you remind me So much poison ivy Wallflower Oh how you deride me Come alive beside me Wallflower How you seem so gentle Never sentimental Wall flower Oh how you deride me Come alive beside me Bring it on

Wrapped in your vines I feel safest of all You will bury me sweetly And fall ever keeping and Keeping and keeping your
