

Sirens

It Dies Today

Pessimism aside, I'll search
To the edge of the earth
Just to find the
Enchantment of her voice in perfect rapture
Steered by the sound
Of persuasive song
Seeking absolution
With tears to match my plaintive woes
We'll create our own truths

Through these
Timeless fables
For this I've waited so long

The fates have spun
The noose it seems
Please sirens set me free
Ravish me with seraphic song

Seduction leaves the lips of the Exquisite sirens [exquisite sirens]
Attired in white leaving me in a
Asphyxiated reverie
Can we rewrite history
We'll create our own truths
Develop
An ending without
You drowning in the black depths

The fates have spun
The noose it seems
Please sirens set me free
Ravish me
With seraphic song

With each note and word I fell victim to the sound of her
Resplendence
Personified

Set me free
Sirens set me
Set me free

The fates have spun the noose it seems
Please sirens set me free
Ravish me with seraphic song

With each note and word I fell victim to the sound of her
Resplendence
Personified
Ohhhhh sirens set me [sirens set, sirens set me free]

Ravish me with seraphic song
