

Everything Is Alright

It Looks Sad.

I hear a whole new world
Every time you complain
Make new plans
And redirect
People tell me they miss me and I like it
They miss and I like it

Fleeting like a cash machine
You really took it out me
I just wanna be there when you break free
Make me an offer
Or bring me something I can use
Because I just need to put it into something else
Put it into something else
Put it into something else

Everything is alright
Everything is alright
Everything is alright
Everything is alright
Everything is alright
Everything is alright
