

Meteor

It Looks Sad.

I was standing in my living room
Yeah, I never go outside
Wonder why
I see your light shine from the sky
Take my life

Cause meteor, when I see you I glow inside
I glow tonight

Your voice is in the mountains
Your cries, they sound like laughter
Voices from the comet that landed here
And we all crawl back

Do I run and hide?
Do I run and hide?
Do I run and hide tonight?

I was standing in my living room
And I barely feel alive
It's not right

Meteor, when I see you I glow inside
I glow inside
Light of my life
Show me why we die
