

Nagoya

It Looks Sad.

Oh, it's fall now and it's cold
Went to the mountains and forgot my coat
I feel stupid in my shorts
I'm gonna freeze up here alone
Then you called me
Then you thawed me
I talked to Seth the other day
He said Japan was going great
I hope I see him on holiday
On holiday

Best friend, this is terrible
You know it's inevitable
I hope you come back
I hope he comes back

Oh, it's fall and you're so cold
And I just really want to go home
I just really need to be alone

Best friend, this is terrible
You don't know it's inevitable
I hope you come back
I hope he comes back

I just really want to go home
I just really need to be alone
I hope you come back
