

Should have been there when you were down
Should have given you all my time
And not take your love for granted
But I took your love for granted
Should have stayed when you needed me
Should have waited for you to heal
And not leave you to your demons
When your demons came from me

Oh, oh, have I learnt my lesson yet?
Oh, oh, are you willing to forget?

It's been so long, I can hardly breathe
So, baby, hurry, hurry please
I cannot wait 'til you're back again
To be your lover, be your friend
It's been so long, I can hardly breathe
So, baby, hurry, hurry please
I cannot wait 'til you're back again
To be your lover, be your friend

Hurry, hurry, hurry home
Hurry back to me
Hurry back to me

If you give us another try
I will fight till the day I die
To become the man you wanted
To be all you're dreaming of
Let me show you that I can change
That your feelings weren't going to waste
I won't fail you like the last time
I can't bear to lose you twice

Oh, oh, have I learnt my lesson yet?
Oh, oh, are you willing to forget?

It's been so long, I can hardly breathe
So, baby, hurry, hurry please
I cannot wait 'til you're back again
To be your lover, be your friend
It's been so long, I can hardly breathe
So, baby, hurry, hurry please
I cannot wait 'til you're back again
To be your lover, be your friend

Hurry, hurry, hurry home
Hurry back to me
Hurry, hurry, hurry home
Hurry back to me

Hurry, hurry, hurry home
Hurry back to me
