

The Weed-Song

Itchy Poopzkid

another day of my life seems so wasted I'm waiting but she doesn't care you can't runaway baby we have to face it that's bringing me down that's unfair every day I think about one thing tell me the reason for being alone tonight (alone tonight) maybe I should react and start changing or I'm gonna stay an asshole for the rest of my days

I won't change
'cause this time
I feel to draw the line
it's my life
I hate you
so fuck off
and smoke some weed

yesterday I saw her kissing this huge guy I kicked him we started a fight but I was the loser as always the shoozer now he penetrates her all night

every day I think about one thing
tell me the reason for being alone tonight (alone tonight)
maybe I should react and start changing
or I'm gonna stay an asshole for the rest of my days

I won't change
'cause this time
I feel to
draw the line
it's my life
I hate you
so fuck off
and smoke some weed
