Just like a fairytale

Do you remember?

In a deep sleep

The lost King and Queen

Together designed

A future that was like a fairytale

They didn't know anything about retribution

What they didn't know was still sinful

To hurt each other and end is so sad

Why are you so easily letting go

As if none of this happened

The time we had together was like...Hey...

A fairytale

Taking broken things

And fixing them has merit, can't you see that?

More than anyone the one who understood

That is you so

When I'm fallin'

What should I do? Tell me...

Why are you hurrying to go far away

As if none of this happened

The time we had together was like...Hey...

A fairytale

In the end the story we made

Was different from reality

Since the ending came out t his way

You're so easily letting go

As if none of this happened

Why are you hurrying to go far away

As if none of this happened

The time we had together was like...Hey...

A fairytale

Just like a fairytale

Do you remember?
