At night when everyone is falling asleep,
I'm sitting alone
I'm still awake
Holding onto a day that has passed
Am I waiting someone?
Or do I have something to do?
If it's not, then do I think of the place
That I want to go back to?

If I lie down on your knee
Brush my hair
Like when I was young

If I fall asleep lightly from your nice touch
Just let me stay for a moment
Don't wake me up,
I'm going to sleep tight

When your calm eyes
Fall upon me
Will I be able to smile
So brightly like I used to?

I think I'm tired,
I've held on long enough
I wish there was a shortcut
To get back to you

If I lie down on your knee
Brush my hair
Like when I was young

If I fall asleep lightly from your nice touch
Just let me stay for a moment
Don't wake me up,
I'm going to sleep tight

Zzzzz zzz
I'll going to sleep tight
Zzzzz zzz
Sleep tight
