Start of New world

Forget everything and
Run away to somewhere
If only you could do that, sometimes you swear

Tied down to the past and
Scared of the future
Open your closed eyes and take me there

More freely
More magnificently
We can sing and dance
If your tears are falling

Makes your smile more shining
It's like you to make a fresh start
Start of New world

Embarrassed by your mistakes and
Even losing your self-confidence
But still, if you couldn't despair

When you love somebody
It becomes hard to breathe
Isn't it hard to pretending like Okay

More sparkling
More shining
If we could emit our own light
If your tears are falling
Makes your smile more shining
Open a new door
Start of New world

World
This world is Wonderful
The start of this new world is Beautiful

More freely
More magnificently
We can sing and dance
If your tears are falling
Makes your smile more shining
It's like you to make a fresh start
Start of New world

More sparkling
