Bright lights, Houston is hot tonight Arabian shieks and money, up in the sky Now I don't mind, a bloodbath

When I've got oil, on my breath Unverified eye to eye Houston is hot tonight

My brain is tired of the wind Chicago winters, just do me in They've got a moon man, on the telephone

hey, Houston control
Unverified eye to eye, Houston
It's like, what's happening?

Houston is hot tonight Houston is hot tonight Houston is hot tonight Houston is hot tonight

Houston is hot tonight Houston is hot tonight Houston is hot tonight
