

Dear Cupid

IVE

(Drop it)
(I just want a little bit of...)

My dear cupid stalking me
Won't leave until I give in
Fighting arrows with my will
My dear cupid chasing still

So toxic
I pull him back away but he wants more
Toxic
He makes me question love and why it's so wrong

Pulling all the strings
Clipped my wings away I fear
Nothings worth if it's from me
But bet you like that
Seeing you afar
Yeah I know just who you are
And you know just who I am
No need to fight back

Smile hidden in disguise
My dear cupid tell me why
Shadows where all secrets lie

Drop it
I just want a little bit of peace
Peace, and love
Peace and love
Peace and love
I just... I just want a little bit of...

So toxic
I pull him back away but he wants more
Toxic
He makes me question love and why it's so wrong
Envy
The sweetest sin of all a gift from god
Envy
My dear cupid don't like to wait no no oh

My dear cupid stalking me
Won't leave until I give in
(Shadows where all secrets lie)
Fighting arrows with my will
My dear cupid chasing still
(Shadows where all secrets lie)

Tiny a itty bitty problem
Keep your lips sealed
Got an angel shadowing me
Secrets kept in
Says my beauty is a blessing from the heavens
And I get it but he reeks of lust
You must trust me on this

And excuse my language I don't mean to be rude
Cupid is a jokster and he likes to cheat too
Wings are darker than his smile and brighter than his eyes
But still you cannot find the safety in his arms I'm Trapped in this never ending cycle
Romance dead but angel won't let me go
Gotta say A - for the free show
Lights out times up
Candles took my last blow

A game I've been playing
With the master of love I've been dancing
With all night long and

Smile hidden in disguise
My dear cupid tell me why
Shadows where all secrets lie
Lie, lie

I just want a little bit of peace
Peace, and love
Peace, and love
Peace, and love
I just... I just want a little bit of...

So toxic
I pull him back away but he wants more
Toxic
He makes me question love and why it's so wrong
Envy
The sweetest sin of all a gift from god
Envy
My dear cupid don't like to wait no no oh
(Shadows where all secrets lie)

Cupids, cupids
(Shadows where all secrets lie)
Cupids
I just... I just want a little bit of...
(Shadows where all secrets lie)

So toxic
I pull him back away but he wants more
Toxic
He makes me question love and why it's so wrong
Envy
The sweetest sin of all a gift from god
Envy
My dear cupid don't like to wait no no oh

My dear cupid stalking me
Won't leave until I give in
Fighting arrows with my will
My dear cupid chasing still

So toxic
I pull him back away but he wants more
Toxic
My dear cupid don't like to wait no no oh
(I just want a little bit of peace)
