(I-I-I'm in the castle)

Everyone hesitates and can't come close
I don't harm anyone
Even when I practice and smile brightly
It seems I don't fit in
People say, you know
She's a bit chilly somewhere
But I don't care (I don't)
No, I don't care (Don't care at all)

Then you, walking towards me
Oh, aren't you fearless
Who's that who's that who's that boy?
Hold up

I-I-I'm in the castle
A high, pointed house at the edge of the cliff
My heart is like dry ice, sub-zero temperature
An ice-cold, eerie queen
I-I-I wanna listen
I'm curious what you will say
From between those pure icy breaths
Try to let it out just once
Woo, woo, ah
Woo, woo
Can you handle it

It's not bad, that bravado of yours
Looks quite cute (He's cute)
Those eyes like the midsummer sun
I can't take my eyes off
What if it's you would it be nice to be together
I imagined a bit
You and me, who knows

Then you, reaching out your hand to me
Oh, aren't you fearless?
Who's that who's that who's that boy?
Hold up

I-I-I'm in the castle
A high, pointed house at the edge of the cliff
My heart is like dry ice, sub-zero temperature
An ice-cold, eerie queen

I-I-I wanna listen
I'm curious what you will say
From between those pure icy breaths
Try to let it out just once

Oh, maybe, just maybe if it's you
Could you melt this heart of mine
Such love, such triviality
Shall we try it once
Ay, are you prepared? You ready?
Watch it burn, hold up

I-I-I'm in the castle
A high, pointed house at the edge of the cliff
My heart is like dry ice, sub-zero temperature
An ice-cold, eerie queen
