

Loser

Ivory Tower

Among us will be ancient
Melodies of patientness
The crucial silence
Shattered by supremacy

They will illuminate the Shadows of yesteryears
To pave the hard way
For a fulfilling future

From wide up in the sky
They'll lead us to retry
Annihilate the discord of the living
And leaders will grow pale
Is what they've said
Or the rest of us will fail
Or the rest of us will fail
The rest of us will fail
Will fail

Ascending senses nor feelings
No one knows
It's so cruel
A living life without it
What do you intend to do

Trust is broken just too long
The one that you belong
Would you struggle at any cost
Until your life is lost

Trust is broken just too long
Is it the one that you belong
Would you struggle at any cost
Until your fucking life is lost

From wide up in the sky
They'll lead us to retry
Annihilate the discord of the living
And leaders will grow pale
Is what they've said
Or the rest of us will fail
Or the rest of us will fail
Will fail

From wide up in the sky
They'll lead us to retry
Annihilate the discord of the living
And leaders will grow pale
Is what they've said
Or the rest of us will fail
Or the rest of us will fail

From wide up in the sky

Is what they've led
Or the rest of us will fail
Or the rest of us will fail
Will fail
Will fail
