

Heartbreak

Ivy

Heartbreak
Yeah that's how it goes
I don't believe in love
Mistakes
You think by now I'd know
I've got to let you go
Heartbreak
No such thing as fate
I'd rather be alone
Don't say
You haven't met the one
I don't believe in love

No me and you it's no use
We break in two that's what we do
Love is just a fiction we made up
Something just to label fading lust
Love is an affliction we made up
Something just to name for all our fading lust

Heartbreak
Again and again
It's a song that never ends
Mistakes
You'd think by now we know
You're gonna let me down
Heartbreak
It's all just really fake
I'm better on my own
You say
I haven't met the one
I don't believe in love

No me and you it's no use
We break in two that's what we do
No me and you it's no use
We break in two that's what we do
Love is just a fiction we made up
Something just to label fading lust
Love is an affliction we made up
Something just to name for all our fading lust
