

Lost in the Sun

Ivy

Can't wake up
I can't feel a thing
The night's so rough
So what does it mean?
Time goes by
And comes round again
All my life
I've learned to pretend

Lost in the sun
Lost in the sun
And I could be anywhere
And I could be everywhere
Lost in the sun
Lost in the sun
Light fills my mind and I feel so enlightened, so enlightened

Morning comes, shines like a dream
Tried to run, scape everything
City's sky is always a flame
In my mind I want the same

Lost in the sun
Lost in the sun
And I could be anywhere
And I could be everywhere
Lost in the sun
Lost in the sun
Light fills my mind and I feel so enlightened, so enlightened
