

World Without You

Ivy

Nothing that I say will ever get to you
You don't hear me at all
Can you leave the ways you find to skirt the truth?
But I know that's just who you are

You can spend your days away from everyone
Safe at home, all alone
Maybe it's OK but when the sun is gone
I bet it gets hard

There was once a secret that we told ourselves
No one knew but me and you
Never could reveal the word to someone else
One of us always standing guard

And I can't stand
To see it come to an end
And I can't stand
To see it come to an end
And I can't stand
To see it come to an end
And I can't stand
To see it come to an end

When I think about you
Don't know what to feel
In a world without you
Don't know what is real

When I think about you
Don't know what to feel
In a world without you
Don't know what is real
Don't know what is real

(And I can't stand)
Don't know what is real
(To see it come to an end)
Don't know what is real
(And I can't stand
To see it come to an end)
