

Can't Avoid the Sun

Iwan Rheon

Milestones and gateposts
In our diary
A summer breeze
Through your arteries
But whispering too far away

Nut shell, church bell
Fond recurring dream
A goosebump pimple
Do you believe
In whispering too far away?

And I started writing this song
To avoid where you had gone
And we run
Yeah we run
We run and run
But can't avoid the sun

Skylight, swirling bird
Golden epilogue
A stalwart prince
When you kissed
That frog
But whispering too far away

Signpost the captured ghost
Anonymity
A fish in dangerous
Anemones
But whispering too far away

And I started writing this song
To avoid where you had gone
And we run
Yeah we run
We run and run
But can't avoid the sun

Castle walls can hold in peace
Until they fall
So why go banging
On the door
And I will sing
My pony little song
Cause I can't avoid the sun

And I started writing this song
To avoid where you had gone
And we run
Yeah we run
We run and run
But can't avoid the sun
