

Your Soul

Iwan Rheon

Last night we seemed to be 21st century
It's hard to vocalize the wonders you seek through your eyes le aves me in disbelief
But don't give it all, give it all, cause that's your soul

I only ask for tea
And a laugh on the trampoline
It's hard to vocalize the wonders you seek through your eyes
You see the best in me
But don't give it all, don't give it up, but ask your soul, ask your soul to suck the beauty from the marrow of your bones Hard to believe, well one can be, clearly to wash the sin away from me,
Down on my knees ask your soul

This dance it speaks to me Loves sky and placid sea
It's hard to vocalize cause you can see it through your eyes Us breathing naturally But don't give it all, don't give it up, go ask your soul, go a sk your soul to suck the beauty from the marrow in your bones.
Hard to believe well one can be, and clearly to wash the sin aw ay from me,
Down on my knees, that's your soul

Don't give it all, don't give it all, cause that's your soul, t hat's your soul will suck the beauty from the marrow of your bo nes
Hard to believe, well you can be, clearly you wash the sin away
from me
Down on my knees, that's your soul
