

One Million

Iyaz

Girl you know where I stay, everyday
Cuz you're the definition of a good woman
Plus you give your boy that good loving, loving, oh
And it's more than just that, you had my back
When everybody say I wouldn't be nothing
Make me feel like I could be something, something, oh

I can't wait, can't wait
Till I see your face
We both hate when I go away
So let 'em say, let 'em say
What they wanna say
I know it can't rain every day, oh

One million ways to lose it all
One million ways that we could fall
But I keep holding on
I put that on my heart, baby
One million miles kept you away
One million days without your face
I never feel the love so strong
And I put that on my heart baby

Put that on my heart, girl, I put that on my heart [x3]
Heart, heart

Even though we may fight
Just give it lil' time
You know that we gon' be back up and running
Back to the kissing and the hugging, hugging, oh
Oh girl I need you to see
Without you where would I be
You know your my everything, my everything

I'll be right there til we grey and old
I'm gon keep you warm when your world turns cold
Put me under pressure but my love won't fold, fold, oh, ooh
Many can try but my love won't die
Can't shoot us down cuz we up so high
Can't really explain what I see in your eyes, eyes, eyes, ey-
eyes
