I know

Why is that? When you get close to me
Anytime, anywhere, I can feel you beside me
Yeah, it's like my heart's antennae are beeping
It's like mood changes, and I catch it

I couldn't even notice that
I would fall in love with you
Not to get surprised later
It will alert me right away

Slowly approaching from behind
Be-be-beware

Be careful, don't let him attack on me
Whoa-oh-oh, let's just ignore him
Until he talked to me
I would never turn around
Three, two, one
Be aware, pretend I am not into you
Whoa-oh-oh, I'm freaking out
Yes, an encounter that wasn't in your gaze
You gotta be surprised

Doesn't my face look prettier from the left side, oh?
That's why I am on your right
So, to me, turn around, oh
You feelin' it? Now our eyes meet, hey!

If I get into you more
I can't stop my feelings for you
Maybe I would keep you all to myself
24/7, I would stay with you

It's a bad habit
I know, but
No matter how many times I make the same mistakes
I would still try to tie him up with the rope of love

I love you even though I didn't mean to
Be-be-beware

At first glance, I could tell he his my type
Whoa-oh-oh, it's dangerous
If I can't be your beloved one
You need to go away
Bye bye bye
I need to warn myself and put the brakes on Whoa-oh-oh, it's not good
Ah, I'm almost addicted to you so please stop
We should keep a bit of distance

Alright, it's bingo, isn't it?
I'm getting into you

Slowly approaching from behind
Be-be-beware

Be careful, don't let him attack on me
Whoa-oh-oh, let's just ignore him
Until he talked to me
I would never turn around
