

Brighter Days

J Boog

Sometimes the sun shines but it shines on the other side
And all the clouds block out the way
Sometimes you want the road to be straight but a lot of times
You reach a point where it splits four ways
Sometimes it's why you have a plan you don't wanna try
And where you're at you just want to stay
Sometimes you wish you would give it another life
It's yours to live not yours to trade

Hold on
Doesn't help to cry but tell me why tears flood your eyes now just
Hold on
Maybe because what you're feeling inside is too much to act now
Life is gonna get much shorter
That's what's gonna make you stronger
Trust me you won't be here much longer
Cause with Jah anything we'll conquer

Never give up have a little faith and just wait
It's gonna be a brighter day
All the pain and the struggling is not in vain and just wait
It's gonna be a brighter day
Hold on, hold on
Just wait it's gonna be a brighter day
Hold on, hold on yes gonna be a brighter day

Seem's like
Everyone's a road block
Designed to keep us all in line one way dem other's flocking
Time fe trow away da bucks
Talking bout higher meditaion my minds ventilation
High fe lead blind your mind can't see it
Impossible for anyone even compete
You preach a fast word and still not believe
Cause all you want is money and greed
That's why we say

Forward
Got to do more than try to starve yourself pick up your stride and just
Forward
Empty out what you've been feeling inside take what's on your mind now
Life is gonna get much shorter
That's what's gonna make you stronger
Trust me you won't be here much longer
Cause with Jah anything we'll conquer

Never give up have a little faith and just wait
It's gonna be a brighter day
All the pain and the struggling is not in vain and just wait
It's gonna be a brighter day
Hold on, hold on
Just wait it's gonna be a brighter day
Hold on, hold on yes gonna be a brighter day

Hold on
Doesn't help to cry but tell me why tears flood your eyes now just
Hold on

Maybe because what you're feeling inside is too much to act now
Life is gonna get much shorter
That's what's gonna make you stronger
Trust me you won't be here much longer
Cause with Jah anything we'll conquer

Never give up have a little faith and just wait
It's gonna be a brighter day
All the pain and the struggling is not in vain and just wait
It's gonna be a brighter day
Hold on, hold on
Just wait it's gonna be a brighter day
Hold on, hold on yes gonna be a brighter day
