

Rose Petals

J Boog

Well she has plenty of guys Still her eyes
Have been staring at me Plenty of times
With the kind of a look that would mess with anyone's mind
Have me wishing that this lady was mine
But I'm
So confused
With the vibes that I'm getting Whether she's hinting for me to approach and not get close 1st she smiles, then she winks, now I'm under her spell, is she playing hard to get, man I just can't tell But now I'm...

Picking at rose petals, watching them drop
she loves me or she love me not
she loves me or she love me not I've got, I've got to know and is it alot to ask if your the one I'm looking for [x2]

But can I get your attention Beautiful Lady
It would just take a second
Been thinking lately
Now I have a confession Wondering maybe
If you feel a connection Cuz of the way staring straight at my direction and I'm going crazy cuz your building this tension can I be our baby and can you be my blessing but if it ain't me Nuff said love, I'd rather just know instead of...

Picking at rose petals, watching them drop
I've got, I've got to know and is it alot
[x2]

I guess I knew for sure if your the girl I'm looking for or a girl I should ignore o Lord I start there
My heart stirs
My thoughts blur
My thighs shake,
My mind blanks, and I can't think I'm speechless

your smiles is my weakness

I hope one day I hear your answer from your sweet lips to the question

"Will you be mine"

but until you answer that's all I'm ever gonna be is just another guy that.

Picking at rose petals, watching them drop

she loves me or she love me not
