Cucumber

J Hus

I can make you fall in love with everything I do
Why you wanna always bite off more than you can chew?
It's so crazy, you're a little baby, you ain't even got a clue
I'm so wavy, I was in the navy and everything I do is for the crew

I met that gyal back in October
Then I gave her the cucumber
I'll give you everything you've been urging for Say ah J Hus make your pum-pum sore
Come shake your bunda pon the dancing floor
Your bunda's bigger than when I seen it before
You say you're ready, but do you mean it for sure?
I need punani 'cause I'm fresh from a war
Splash my man, jump back in the car
Every gyal want a badman and a soldier
Make her come closer, then I told her
"If I can make you wet then I'm the owner"
Had to give a couple gyal a cold shoulder
That gyal got high, then went lower
Say she like dancehall and soca
I'm looking at her neck and I saw a choker

I can make you fall in love with everything I do
Why you wanna always bite off more than you can chew?
It's so crazy, you're a little baby, you ain't even got a clue
I'm so wavy, I was in the navy and everything I do is for the crew

She been 'round me too much, now she talk greazy
How you make being sexy look easy?
When you need me, I come there speedy
The pussy so fire, I'm dropping an EP
You can't wear no makeup when you come and see me
You see a lengman if you read my CV
He never put no work, he wanted a freebie
I'ma be a billionaire when they free VV
I notice you how you was noticing me
My gangsta aura drew her closer to me
We made a connection emotionally
I had a big mama, ten years older than me
Wargwan, baby, how the body?
I like your inside and your outer body
All I do is hustle and count the money
I got a whole army, and they're all counting on me

I can make you fall in love with everything I do
Why you wanna always bite off more than you can chew?
It's so crazy, you're a little baby, you ain't even got a clue
I'm so wavy, I was in the navy and everything I do is for the crew
