They only respect violence
Badman move in silence
The fakers form an alliance
But the real will always triumph
They only respect violence
Badman move in silence
The fakers form an alliance
But the real will always triumph

I knew you was my bro when we met
I can't forget what we did for the set
Splash man wet for the disrespect
With my sins I step, not one regret
All the guap I get, I can't stop yet
Sweet talk gyal with the playboy effect
Gyal I know you was braddah, see you smoke cigarette
See you in your mini skirt, let me get, some of that
I step with the wap
I rep with the gat
You get G check for your G chat
Man ah test your reflex, better relax
They don't really hear threats, they got earwax
'Til we spray their block instead
He must've lost his head, then he lost his head
You'll turn red if man see red
Finish them all, that's what my auntie said
(Don't worry auntie, I got you)

They only respect violence
Badman move in silence
The fakers form an alliance
But the real will always triumph
They only respect violence
Badman move in silence (Yeah)
The fakers form an alliance (Alright, alright, alright)
But the real will always triumph

God give me guidance, I might lose my sense
We sprayed up my man, I ain't seen the guy since
Man just survivin', maintainin'
My guy's doin' time, he call it vacation
He's in a cell with a tek and a PlayStation
I hustle every day, you on a play-play ting
They don't wanna grind, they want a donation
It's like who born him? Who raised him?
I never had patience but never complacent
A little motivation, there's no limitation
BCM affiliation
And anywhere we bump heads, we deal with the situation
Shoulda known when we met that you'd be a opp
If man get the drop, man pop the boot
And man boot from the drop
Man tool up before my shoes and socks

They only respect violence

Badman move in silence
The fakers form an alliance
But the real will always triumph
They only respect violence
Badman move in silence
The fakers form an alliance
But the real will always triumph
