

One More Day

J Rice

As I walk along a lonely street
And I'm overcome with all my fears
Take my sleeve and then I wipe my cheek
In that instant I have no more tears

So why
Do I
Still hurt

Maybe everything I know is wrong
I never wanted to be gone this long
Close my eyes and all I see is you
But everyday you lose a shade or two

And time
Will bring you back to me
So I guess I'll wait for one more day

One more day
One more day
One more day
One more day
One more day
And I guess I'll wait for one more day
One more day
One more day
One more day
One more day
One more day
Oh I guess I'll wait for one more day

Ooh one seems so long

What if one more day is not enough
Wait a year, and then you're still not here
You find someone and fall so deep in love
While I'm waiting you just disappear

Then I
I'll still hurt
Oh yeah

Sometimes I let my worries get the best of me
When I know inside they'll never be
Can't help but think what time will do
When I'm so far away from you

One more day
One more day
One more day
One more day
One more day
I don't know if I can go another day
One more day
One more day
One more day
One more day

One more day
I guess I'll go one more day
