

Silence

J Rice

It happened again
And I told my friends
I don't know why I keep doing that
I said "It's the end"
But they shook their heads
But they don't know you like that

And why's it always everytime I talk about you
It's only after we've fought and argued
I never seemed to mention all the good things
You do, you do

'Cause when we're fighting all I see violence (woah)
And we don't even try to hide it (woah)
When it's good we pass right by it (oh no)
But when we're happy all I hear

Is silence silence silence silence
All I hear is silence silence silence
And when it's good all I hear is silence

When you say, "I'm leaving"
I say, "Good ahead then"
How'd we get back to this place?
'Cause I didn't mean it
I hope you believe me
But I can tell by your face

And why's it everytime I say, "I love you"
It's only after we fight and argue
I never seem to see all of the good things
You do, you do

'Cause when we're fighting all I see is violence (woah)
And we don't even try to hide it (woah)
When it's good we pass right by it (oh no)
But when we're happy all I hear

Is silence silence silence silence
All I hear is silence silence silence
And when it's good all I hear is silence

And the occasional I love you
All I hear is silence
When we fight

And when we're fighting all I see is violence (woah)
And we don't even try to hide it (woah)
When it's good we pass right by it (oh no)
But when we're happy all I hear

Is silence silence silence silence
All I hear is silence silence silence
And when it's good all I hear is silence
Silence silence silence silence
Silence silence silence
