

Small

J Rice

It takes every ounce of me
To not hate you right now
You sit and watch me bleed
And still sleep at night somehow
I let you take control
Was too scared to fight back
I let myself self destruct
Now I'm paying for that

You can't help but turn the knife
Every chance you get
If I could still feel
I'd feel sorry I left

You made me feel so small
You cut me as deep as a skyscraper's tall
Whenever I fall
Your boot is right there to make sure I can't crawl
I've never felt so small
Never felt so small

It takes every ounce of me
To forgive you for this
Not sure that I can see
Any path to forget
Smashed my light upon the street
Then said I know what you need
You'll never make it out there
On your own, without me

You can't help but turn the knife
Every chance you get
If I could still feel
I'd feel sorry I left

You made me feel so small
You cut me as deep as a skyscraper's tall
Whenever I fall
Your boot is right there to make sure I can't crawl
I've never felt so small
Never felt so small

I don't wanna live in anger no more
All it does is rot my soul
Maybe I can wish you well I mean it
You can have it all

You made me feel so small
You cut me as deep as a skyscraper's tall
Whenever I fall
Your boot is right there to make sure I can't crawl
I've never felt so small
