

Rebound

J Stalin

She was just a rebound like a pick-up game
I don't even know her name
She was just a rebound like a pick-up game
I don't even know her name
And she was just a rebound, I caught her off the backboard
Two hundred on my dashboard
And she was just a rebound, she was just a rebound

Fuck you harder than your drop-top
Run into a real nigga when the fake stop
We got foreign cars down the whole block
That's a whole lot of money from the base rock
Gunfights in the ghetto'll have you shellshocked
I pump that pussy up like it's a Reebok
Catch me on the rebound 'cause my heart broke
Get you all alone, give you the long stroke
Best head I ever had with that deepthroat
Left the bitch in Blackhawk Casino
Best head I ever had with that deepthroat

And when it's my time to score, girl, keep our business on the low
You ain't fuckin' with no lame but I think you already know
Girl, I know you already know
Girl, I know you already know

She was just a rebound like a pick-up game
I don't even know her name
She was just a rebound like a pick-up game
I don't even know her name

I just hope it's still mine when the game stop
Grab this plug off the jumpshot
The way I get it when I'm in the middle
Make you feel like I'm off a Skittle
Heart broke and now she sick like a hospital
Bitch, you a role player like Kerry Kittles
And your man can't work the middle, uh-huh
'Cause his thing too little

Ass bouncin' everywhere, I feel like it's a perfect basketball
Ball, ball, ball, ball, ball, ball, ball, ball
Ass bouncin' everywhere, I think I might coach y'all
Then, then, then, then, then, then, then, then

And when it's my time to score, girl, keep our business on the low
You ain't fuckin' with no lame but I think you already know
Girl, I know you already know
Girl, I know you already know

Bitch, it's the candy man
They call me Maxin and it's nice to meet you
Bitch, it's the candy man
They call me Maxin and it's nice to meet you

She was just a rebound like a pick-up game
I don't even know her name

She was just a rebound like a pick-up game
I don't even know her name
And she was just a rebound, I caught her off the backboard
Two hundred on my dashboard
And she was just a rebound, she was just a rebound
