

Where Did I Go Wrong

J Stalin

Where did I fuck up, baby? Just tell me what I did wrong
Since you didn't come home, got me sittin', writin' this song
Where did I fuck up, baby? Just tell me what I did wrong
Now you out havin' fun, so I guess you're single now

Bitches lyin' on me, tryna break us up
Niggas lyin' on you, they just wanna fuck
Baby, you know this industry crazy
You know how I deal with these different ladies
It's all for the image, you know that I don't love 'em
If she lookin' like it's night then, baby, you my supper
You the only one I fuck without a rubber
Your friends lyin' on you, say you fucked my brother

I believe them, and you believe him
Back with the bullshit, baby, here we go again
I believe them, and you believe him
Back with the bullshit, baby, here we go again

Where did I fuck up, baby? Just tell me what I did wrong
Since you didn't come home, got me sittin', writin' this song
Where did I fuck up, baby? Just tell me what I did wrong
Now you out havin' fun, so I guess you're single now

Guess you done picked out a letter
Now you got a lot of niggas
Asked for your freedom and I gave it to you
You just fucked up a pretty picture
Now you twerkin' in the club and you drinkin' liquor
Damn, look at all these niggas lookin' at you
Girl, they just wanna be your baby daddy
That's fucked up, you can't even go out in peace
Without somebody callin' me

I believe them, and you believe him
Back with the bullshit, baby, here we go again
I believe them, and you believe him
Back with the bullshit, baby, here we go again

Where did I fuck up, baby? Just tell me what I did wrong
Since you didn't come home, got me sittin', writin' this song
Where did I fuck up, baby? Just tell me what I did wrong
Now you out havin' fun, so I guess you're single now

Look, I guess you're single and you love it
Threw our relationship away like, "Fuck it, fuck it"
Now you're single and you love it
Threw our relationship away like, "Fuck it, fuck it"
Now you're single and you love it
Threw our relationship away like, "Fuck it, fuck it"
Now you're single and you love it
Threw our relationship away like, "Fuck it, fuck it"
Now you're single and you love it, love it
Now you're single and you love it
Threw our relationship away like, "Fuck it, fuck it"
Now you're single and you love it
