

Celebrate

Jace Everett

Here it comes it's not too late
Now's the time to celebrate
Raze the ramparts make some room
I got a heart like an empty tomb
And I'm here I'm here to celebrate

Come meet my loneliness
In my favorite party dress
Every lie is a word I say
So, lie back
And let's celebrate

I know you have some things to do
Darlin, let it go this is me and you
The crowd we've drawn has made demands
So stomp your feet and clap your hands
And get ready, they're here to celebrate

Come meet my loneliness
You don't need a party dress
Don't believe a word I say
Lie back
And let's celebrate

We've come to celebrate
It's time to celebrate
This is my invocation
You are my congregation
So open up your eyes and see
That I will never set you free
But it's time, it's time to celebrate

Come meet my loneliness
In my favorite party dress
Every lie is a word I say
So lie back
And let's celebrate

Let's celebrate
Rise children rise
Don't look me in the eye
It's time to celebrate
