

Gandharva

Jace Everett

Atharva
World spinning out of control
Gandharva
Don't want anybody to know

Where rivers flow
I'll follow
Far enough out of sight
That we can keep them blind

While I watch you on the dance floor
My heart breaks with every move
As I watch you on the dance floor
There is nothing I won't do

A thousand gods to face us
All untouchable as you
So called sacred spaces
Only you are truth

Where rivers flow
I'll follow
We will ride tonight
And leave the lies behind

While I watch you on the dance floor
My heart breaks with every move
As I watch you on the dance floor
There is nothing else that's true
While I watch you on the dance floor
My heart breaks with every move
As I watch you on the dance floor
There is nothing else that's true
