

Rise Up

Jace Everett

Rise up rise up
Sleep no more
I've called your name
Come forth
Rise up rise up
Sleep no more
You hear my voice
Come forth

Well here come the wandering stranger
Got the diamonds in his eyes
He shed a tear for all the world
Where were you when we cried?
My sisters at your beck and call
Guess every table got it's crumbs
You saved the sick the blind the deaf
Then left me cold and dumb

Rise up rise up
Sleep no more
I've called your name
Come forth
Rise up rise up
Sleep no more
You hear my voice
Come forth

Now tell me, what is there left to prove man?
Wait, I see one in your crowd
He knows the way, the truth, the life
He'll do his master proud
Now will you catch him hangin' round
Or just let him take the fall?
You said you came to save the world,
But you won't save us all

Rise up rise up
Sleep no more
I've called your name
Come forth
Rise up rise up
Sleep no more
You hear my voice
Come forth
