Sapphira

Jace Everett

Ananias took a shot & man he blew it up
They saw him coming & they couldn't help but pass the cup

You should a told me you were comin' around
I would a warned you got you under ground

Saphira why won't you give it up
Saphira baby ain't you got enough

We all make choices baby maybe even when we don't Go on gehenna now 'cause all we had is up in smoke

I had a plot and a plan or two
Sold 'em both and gave the change to you

Saphira why you won't give it up
Saphira baby ain't you got enough

This is the story of another lonely little heart
She dug her nails so deep it finally tore her world apart

Saphira why you won't give it up
Saphira baby ain't you got enough

The spirits moving in suspicious ways
I'll keep my head down 'til the end of days
