

Believing For The Best In You

Jaci Velasquez

After all I've said
To try and change your mind?
Are you still going to doubt my word?
You can point out your failures
And point out your flaws
I don't see them
There are two sides to every story
And glory is on your side
And one hope in every dreamer
The Redeemer and that is why

I'm believing for the best in you
Believing for the best in you
You've got Jesus in your heart and you love Him so
For that's all I need to know, all I need to know
I'm believing for the best in you

You've been searching through
The garden of your life
For the seeds that planted there
I can show you the blossoms
And show you the vines
You don't see them
You're looking so hard for the flowers
And the hours, they're still ahead
And all that is not showing is progress
And that is why

I'm believing for the best in you
Believing for the best in you
You've got Jesus in your heart and you love Him so
For that's all I need to know, all I need to know
I'm believing for the best in you

The eyes of the Lord are upon you
Oh, He sees what He made you to be
So arise and shine for the light has come
And there's no way to hide it from me

'Cause I'm believing for the best in you
Believing for the best in you
You've got Jesus in your heart and you love Him so
For that's all I need to know, all I need to know
I'm believing for the best in you
'Cause I'm believing for the best in you
Believing for the best in you
You've got Jesus in your heart and you love Him so
For that's all I need to know, all I need to know
I'm believing for the best in you
Believing for the best in you
I'm believing
