

Glass House

Jaci Velasquez

Come on in
Sometimes it feels as though my life is like a test
With expectations that I've got to be the best
Feels like everybody's always watchin'
One little slip gets people talkin'
So many unkind words are spoken
You see my heart is hurting
But it's still open

I have no other choice, but to let you see so
Come on in 'cause I know I can take it
You can throw those stones
Even tho I may be fragile
You're not gonna see me shatter

'Cause I know who I am and I won't fake it
I'm gonna take a stand
'Cause it's my faith that keeps me strong
That is all
The light is on
In my glass house
In my glass house

So tomorrow morning when we step outside our castle
We think before we let the judgment calls unravel
Our Savior said to love one another
Why must we go on hurting one another
Though it may be easier to run and hide

I'm gonna let you in
'Cause I can take it
Even though I maybe fragile
You're not gonna see me shatter, no

'Cause I know who I am and I won't fake it
I'm gonna take a stand
'Cause it's my faith that keeps me strong
The light is on

May I always find a way to give compassion
And remember how it hurt
When someone else's world is crashing
Lord, I pray for love, yeah

Come on in 'cause I know I can take it
You can throw those stones
Even though I may be fragile
You're not gonna see me shatter
No

'Cause I know who I am and I won't fake it
I'm gonna take a stand
'Cause it's my faith that keeps me strong
The light is on
In my glass house

Come on in 'cause I know I can take it

You can throw tho
