

Bloom / Bouquet (Jack Johnson)

Jack & Jack

All my days I've been searching
Searching for a girl like you
Baby I'm so certain
One day our love will bloom
So take my hand, travel with me
Ain't nobody standing in our way now
Give me a chance, set your mind free
You're looking like a bouquet now
One that God made now
How'd you get so fucking beautiful?
Girl I need to know
Baby for this love to bloom and grow
Gotta Take it slow

Uh Uh Yeah
And I've been searching all my days
And I've been waiting oh so patiently for you to come my way
Don't know how you do it girl but when we're face to face
My words don't come out like they're supposed to
I forget just what to say and
It' so crazy how you make me stumble
Every time my fingers they have spaces for a reason
Put your hand in mine
Why do people run away when times get hard
And answers hide
I can't survive without without the truth
I'm in the booth you're in my mind
Yeah you're on my mind 24/7 around the clock
I just don't know how to to stop thinking about
The way you make me feel.
Like I'm on a mountain tops higher off your love
Than I've ever been off the clouds of pot that I've been hittin'
They say our love is so forbidden,
But while they're trippin' we just get to rollin' and get to sippin'
You compliment me well baby you're the Jordan to my Pippin
Me and you about to bloom
I feel our roots waters drippin'

All my days I've been searching
Searching for a girl like you
Baby I'm so certain
One day our love will bloom
So take my hand, travel with me
Ain't nobody standing in our way now
Give me a chance, set your mind free
You're looking like a bouquet now
One that God made now
How'd you get so fucking beautiful?
How'd you get so fucking beautiful?
