

Closure

Jack & Jack

What's the point in closure, when it's already over
What's the point in closure, when it's already over, over

Yeah, things change, people change
Can't enjoy the sunshine without a little rain
I see brighter days comin', I'm just keepin' faith
Girl we failed to make amends now I'm sippin' from this fib
While my speakers bang, damn I can't believe the way
I've been relying on this liquor to relieve the pain
My stomach drops everytime that I see your face
But I just gotta tell myself that I'ma be okay

You got someone new don't hit my phone
Sayin' that you miss me, does he know?
It's all up in your fears we're all alone
Tryna talk the about when we went wrong

What's the point in closure, when it's already over
What's the point in closure, when it's already over, over
Used to be your shoulder, now I don't know ya
What's the point in closure, when it's already over
I'll be okay, okay, okay
I'll be okay, okay, okay
I'll be okay, okay, okay
I'll be okay, okay, okay, okay
I'll be okay

Think I saw a red flag bout a couple months back
Should've left it at that
Yeah we burn and we crashed
Always thought it would last
Time I'll never get back

Oh you got someone new don't hit my phone
Sayin' that you miss me, does he know?
It's all up in your fears we're all alone
Tryna talk the about when we went wrong

What's the point in closure, when it's already over
What's the point in closure, when it's already over, over
Used to be your shoulder, now I don't know ya
What's the point in closure, when it's already over
I'll be okay, okay, okay
I'll be okay, okay, okay
I'll be okay, okay, okay
I'll be okay, okay, okay, okay
I'll be okay

I'll be fine, I'll be good, so good, damn
