

Fire

Jack & Jack

She said I'm fallin'
But I'm falling through
I got some problems
And not a lot left to lose
She doesn't know the truth
Doesn't even have a clue
I think I always knew
I'd be out here

On my, on my own
Gotta let that shit go
Before I lose control
I don't wanna crash & burn

Fire
Can you take me higher
(You are)
The fire
I can hear the sirens
In the fire

Got me looking way back
To the days I was runnin' through the wasteland
Everything came with a price, you know I paid that
Was a victim to my ways, I had to change that
Now the sun's a lil brighter on the west side
Got me feelin' something different on a test drive
Nowadays I'm walkin' round with my chest high
Higher than it's ever been Found my calling, now I'm feelin' heaven-sent Yeah

On my, on my own
Gotta let that shit go
Before I lose control
I don't wanna crash & burn

Fire
Can you take me higher
(You are)
The fire
I can hear the sirens
In the fire

Fire
Can you take me higher
(You are)
The fire
I can hear the sirens
In the fire...
