

Runaway

Jack & Jack

Left home the other day
She's just a runaway
She ain't got nowhere to go

Lookin for some escape
Anything to numb the pain
Walkin down this broken road

She's nothing like she used to be
Empty eyes at age 18
Getting high alone
Until she suffocate
Can't seem to runaway no, no

Run away
Far away from home
To another place
Only thing to her name is a blunt to face
She's goin down a dark road can't pump the breaks no
Her mood fluctuates up and down based off of the drugs she takes Taking uppers and downers to numb the pain
Self-destructive only herself to blame

She comes from a family who don't wanna know
About all of the secrets she ain't ever told
Late nights get long
When nothing's goin her way so
She went and packed a suitcase up

Left home the other day
She's just a runaway
She ain't got nowhere to go

Lookin for some escape
Anything to numb the pain
Walkin down this broken road

She's nothing like she used to be
Empty eyes at age 18
Getting high alone
Until she suffocate
Can't seem to runaway no no

Baby girl she wanna run away from her fears
Baby girl she gonna run away far from here
She wined slow sippin liquor and she smokin a loud
Tell ya she love ya but you know she ain't stickin around

She comes from a family who don't wanna know
About all of the secrets she ain't ever told
Late nights get long
When nothing's goin her way so
She went and packed a suitcase up

Left home the other day
She's just a runaway
She ain't got nowhere to go

Lookin for some escape
Anything to numb the pain
Walkin down this broken road

She's nothing like she used to be
Empty eyes at age 18
Getting high alone
Until she suffocate
Can't seem to runaway no no
