

Better

Jack Garratt

Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you a lot
Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you
Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you a lot
Maybe we can hang out or something

Oh
Something's telling me to save myself
Something's telling me to hurt myself
Something's eating at me

And oh
Something's telling me that to save myself
I might have to go and sedate myself
And join the reverie

Oh, if I can take something
To make me feel better than I'm feeling now
Then everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work itself out

Oh, if I can swallow something
Then people might like me better when I choke it down
And everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work its

Oh
I'll sit back helplessly and watch the world descend
Into chaos curated by suited men
And they all look like me

But oh
Something has to start making sense
But in my dreams I see no evidence
That this is happening

Oh, if I can take something
To make me feel better than I'm feeling now
Then everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work itself out

Oh, if I can swallow something
Then people might like me better when I choke it down
And everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work itself

Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you a lot
Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you
Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you a lot
Maybe we can hang out or something

Everything else will work itself out

I don't care how
Just keep my head buried under the ground
And wait for everything to work out

Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you a lot
Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you
Hey, I think you're really cool
I like you a lot
Maybe we can hang out or something

Oh, if I can take something
To make me feel better than I'm feeling now
Then everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work itself out

Oh, if I can swallow something
Then people might like me better when I choke it down
Everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work itself out

Everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work its
Everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work its
Everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work itself out
Everything else will work its
