

Time

Jack Garratt

Why is it not enough
To be fine?
You're overthinking, in a rut
And terrified
Of giving in to who you are
And losing your mind
You wanna run 'till you run out of light
But why?

When time is on your side
When time is on your side

Now everything you think you know
Of your design
Is trembling at the edges
You're not alright
Afraid to look inside yourself
Afraid you'll find
That an hourglass is just a glass
With sand inside

But time is on your side
Time is on your side
Time is on your side
Time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
When time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
Time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
Time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
Time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
Time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
Time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
Time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
Time is on your side (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
Time is on- (Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready? Are you ready?)
