Oh AdaLINE (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Confessing all my thoughts just might be
Out of line (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
I'm just trying to figure out the
Way you move your body
And how to get you on me
Yeah AdaLINE (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
AdaLINE

Last summer we met
Driving in the desert, she stole my breath
Couldn't figure out if she was pretend (ummm)
Guess that's nevada for ya
Dripping in green
Put my money on a ultralight beam
Then she took me on a spaceship flying haha
Yeah that's nevada for ya
She took me to France, took off her pants
Fuck in Provence, little romance
Holding her hands but she got 8 of them
Wouldn't believe it until you see it first I hated them
Now they got me screaming

AdaLINE (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Confessing all my thoughts just might be
Out of line (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
I'm just trying to figure out the
Way you move your body
And how to get you on me
Yeah AdaLINE (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
AdaLINE

Right well, eyes like tv
She was showing me how deep lies could be
Said the government was coming for me
Let's hide in California
Running for days
We've been rolling on the super highways
Loves it when I teach her how to behave
Cause cops are coming for ya
Men in the black follow our tracks
Try to disguise my girl in the back
Cover her hands but she got 8 of them
Wouldn't believe it until you see it first I hated them
Now they got me screaming

AdaLINE (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Confessing all my thoughts just might be
Out of line (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
I'm just trying to figure out the
Way you move your body
And how to get you on me
Yeah AdaLINE (yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
