

Down Side Of Up

Jack Gray

Found myself in the back of a cab
Once again I'm forgetting my bags
But damn your man he called and said
That things don't always go to plan

He can't make it today cause he's working
You fall and you feel like you're hurting
It's over you know it for certain
But the look on your face is concerning

'Cause you don't know, know, my name
But you don't know, know, my name

I don't really think that it's working
Feeling like I'm dropping the ball
Even though you're putting the work in
I'm busy when you give me a call

There's only so much I can say
So if you're down to play
I guess you can have it your way
If that's okay

There's no rules for the day
Feeling home but away
Are you leaving right now
She said no way

No need to rush for nothing
Take it slow I'll give you something
I'm not much but I'm not bluffing
I think it's about time that you

Know, know, my name
