

Goosebumps

Jack Gray

I get those goosebumps every time, come around
You ease my mind, you make everything feel fine
Worried 'bout those comments
I'm way too numb, yeah, it's way too dumb

I get those goosebumps every time, I need the Heimlich
Throw that to the side
I get those goosebumps every time, yeah
When you're not around
When you throw that to the side

Oh no, I can't fuck with y'all
When I'm with my squad I cannot do no wrong
Saucing in the city, don't get misinformed
They gon' pull up on you

We gon' do some things, some things you can't relate
'Cause we from a place, a place you cannot stay
You can't go
I don't know
Back the fuck up off me

Every time

I get those goosebumps every time, come around
Ease my mind, you make everything feel fine
Worried 'bout those comments
I'm way too numb, yeah, it's way too dumb
Yeah, yeah

I get those goosebumps every time, I need the Heimlich
Throw that to the side
I get those goosebumps every time, yeah
When you're not around
When you throw that to the side

I wanna press my like, yeah, I wanna press my
I want a green light, I wanna be like
I wanna press my line
I wanna take that ride, yeah
I wanna press my
I want a green light, I wanna be like
I'm wanna press my
Mama, dear, spare your feelings
I'm reliving moments, peeling more residual
Buy the building, burn the building
Take your bitch, rebuild the building
Just to fuck some more
Justify my love for you
And touch the sky for God to stop, debating war
That pussy to die for
That pussy to die for

Peter, piper, picked a pepper
So, I could pick your brain and put your heart together
We depart the shady parts and party hard
The diamonds yours, the coupe forever

I get those goosebumps every time

I get those goosebumps every time

Mind, you make everything feel fine

Worried 'bout those comments

I'm way too numb, yeah, it's way too dumb

Yeah
