

Winter City

Jack Gray

Toronto got me feeling so cold
A winter city that I don't know
And I hold back, from reaching out
I think it's 3 AM where you lie
But you gotta rest those pretty eyes
And I know that, so I hold back

Maybe it'll get easier
It'll get easier
To be everything that you need
Maybe it'll get easier (easier, easier)
It'll get easier (easier, easier)
For me eventually

Paris got me inspired
London sitting under grey skies
Got me so blue, thinking about us
Checking in with my carry-on
Like everything we just carry on
And we can't stop, now I'm at the next stop

Damn I've been working, yeah I'm working hard
I want this shit like I wanted your heart
Keep my feet grounded, I need to touch base
A second with you is a moment of grace

And I know what's important, I know what is real
And I know that these drugs don't come close to
How you make me feel
How you make me feel

Maybe it'll get easier (easier, easier)
It'll get easier (easier, easier)
For me eventually
Oh baby, it'll get easier (easier, easier)
It'll get easier
For me eventually
