

A Little Bit

Jack Ingram

So you believed them when they whispered like the wind
Now we are back where we began
And how do you know I was ok leaving anyway
And I miss you everyday

I'm a little bit angry but thats alright
It's a little bit harder everytime
I'm a little bit lucky but I don't mind
Cause I'm a little bit stronger

I saw it comin' we were racing to the end
Now there's no goin' back where we began
But I loved you so much
So afraid of believing in your touch but this time

I'm a little bit angry but thats alright
It's a little bit harder everytime
I'm a little bit lucky but I don't mind
Cause I'm a little bit stronger

And I'm a little bit angry but thats alright
It's a little bit harder everytime
I'm a little bit lucky but I don't mind
I'm a little bit stronger

Just a little bit angry
A little bit harder
A little bit lucky
And a little bit stronger
